Frylite

With 30 years' industry experience and today's market leader, we know a thing or two about the oil business. But while we know our products and their quality inside out, that's not what drives our success.

Today more than 7,000 food industry businesses across Ireland, from local independents to multinational brands, trust us to deliver quality and service, week in, week out. With 30 years industry experience and today's market leader, we know a thing or two about the oil business. But while we know our products and their quality inside out, that's not what drives our success. Building the business around our customers, Eamon went further to develop and deliver a ground breaking complete supply and waste collection service that is now the first choice for more than 60% of the food industry in the island of Ireland.

Frylite: Making Sure Freshness, Quality and Value are all on the Menu.

Before 1988, the vegetable oil supply industry can only be described as poor, products were inferior and customers were indifferent. Eamon McCay saw all of those challenges as opportunities to create a brand new, complete oil management system that was ground-breaking in its simplicity. Putting the customer at the heart of the business, Frylite set out to challenge accepted practice and improve service with new ideas and innovative technology. Today, that commitment to and investment in innovating for our customers continues and Frylite is well-known as the industry leader across the island of Ireland.

Hilton Foods

Hilton Food Group's strategy is to support our customers' brands and their development in local markets, leading to sustainable growth. This clear and straightforward approach has generated great success and built us a strong reputation for transparency, honesty and agile thinking, backed up with modern and well-invested facilities. What we deliver for our partner is determined by their commercial agenda and their competitive pressures. We dedicate ourselves to fully understanding both. We then design an entire operation and supply chain around their needs and priorities.

Through our service model (the people and the processes we set up), we aim to meet the needs of our partners' culture, structure and operational requirements. In other words, what we do and what we deliver is designed around them. We focus on their specific consumers and on the trends that impact their needs and preferences.

Horse Racing Ireland

Merit Medical

As a global employer, Merit Medical provides immense opportunities to improve the wellbeing of employees around the world. In 2019, the position of Chief Wellness Officer (CWO) was added to our C-Suite. As CWO, Nicole Priest, MD, leads Merit Medical's wellness programs and is making a big difference in the lives of employees not just in Merit Medical Galway but around the world.

"Helping people make positive, impactful lifestyle changes is my passion, and it's incredibly rewarding to assume a leadership role in an organization that shares that passion. As CWO, I will ensure that Merit continues and expands its commitment to investing in employee health, wellbeing, and satisfaction." — Nicole Priest, MD, Merit Medical CWO.

At Merit Galway our employees are embracing physical and mental wellness by participating in onsite services, such as health coaching, yoga classes, and preventative screenings for high cholesterol, diabetes, prostate cancer, and breast cancer. Employees can also attend periodic Lunch and Learn events that present topics on weight loss and exercise. Each year Merit Galway sponsor a mental health week to bring awareness to and combat the negative stigma surrounding mental health issues. In 2019 this program had great success with involvement of over 400 employees. Our people are at the heart of everything that we do here in Merit and this is preserved not only in our ways of working but also to how we try to always bring the employee voice to the fore and be innovative in our wellness programmes.

Understand. Innovate. Deliver.

Milford Care Centre

Milford Care Centre is a voluntary, not-for-profit organisation and a registered charity. It was first established by the Little Company of Mary Sisters in 1928 and now provides Specialist Palliative Care Services and Older Persons Services in the Midwest. The Board of Directors and Management Team oversee the service delivery and fundraising activities. As a voluntary organisation we work in partnership with the HSE and the Specialist Palliative Care services are currently 75% funded by the HSE. Fundraising provides an integral part of the funding required to support the delivery of vital Specialist Palliative Care services. We rely heavily on and are extremely grateful for the generosity of the general public, who contribute to our services by donating money or running events to support the funds required to provide vital Specialist Palliative Care services. Throughout the calendar year we run key fundraising events such as the 'Milford Care Centre 10k', 'Coffee Morning', 'Sunflower Day' and the 'Light Up A Memory' events. We pride ourselves on striving to deliver the highest quality of care across the Nursing Home, and the Specialist Palliative Care services which include Specialist Palliative Care In-Patient Unit, Specialist Palliative Out Patient Unit, Specialist Palliative Day Care and Hospice At Home (community teams working across Limerick, Clare and Tipperary). In addition, we also deliver Older Persons Day Services. One of our greatest assets are our staff, and have over 385 staff working across the Midwest region. Every day our staff care for patients/residents and support their families during what is most likely a very vulnerable time in their lives. As an organisation we support our staff by keeping their wellbeing central.

Mitie Ireland

Mitie Ireland is a total facilities management company which forms part of Mitie Group, established in Ireland in 2010. ## National Cancer Registry Ireland

The National Cancer Registry Ireland (NCRI) is a publicly appointed body, established in 1991, to collect and classify information on all cancer cases which occur in Ireland. Our activities include - collecting information on all new cancer cases in Ireland, monitoring trends and outcomes in different cancer types, promoting the use of the information we collect in research and in the planning and management of services, and publishing an annual report on cancer statistics. Cancer registration in the Republic of Ireland by the NCRI is population-based, covering a population of 5.01 million in 2021. The NCRI is funded by the Department of Health.

The information the NCRI collects is used in research into the causes of cancer, in education and information campaigns, and in the planning of the national cancer strategy to deliver the best cancer care to the whole population. The NCRI regularly publishes reports on cancer incidence and survival and, more periodically, on prevalence and projections and has developed a diverse portfolio of research projects, many of which involve external collaboration.

The National Cancer Registry employs 46 people in its Cork based office and runs an employee wellbeing programme which is supported by the organization's management team, ensuring employees are encouraged to embrace the concepts of wellbeing and are supported across all areas of wellness including mental health, physical activity, diet and nutrition.

National College of Ireland

National College of Ireland is a not-for-profit, third-level institution, with 6,500 students across its key areas of human relations, business, computing, education and psychology. The College's internationally recognised programmes are delivered full-time and part-time, and accredited through QQI. NCI also has strong relationships with many professional bodies, such as CIPD and ACCA. Responsive to the needs of employers, NCI has an award-winning Careers team and a consistently high graduate employment rate. Taking a 'whole-person' approach to education, NCI nurtures a friendly and supportive atmosphere in its campus at the crossroads of the IFSC and Silicon Docklands. Cooperating closely with NCI Students' Union and, with them, early contributors to the National Student Engagement Programme (NStEP – a HEA-funded joint-initiative with QQI), the College was among the first to sign a Partnership Agreement setting out shared principles and structures to ensure students have the most successful and enjoyable time possible while at NCI.

The faculty, both full-time and associate, is drawn from academia and industry, from across the world, and combines the best of practical and theoretical expertise. There is strong collaboration between academic and non-academic staff, under the guidance of Executive Board and Governing Body, led by President Gina Quin and Vice President Jimmy Hill. The College has achieved an Athena Swan bronze award. NCI has a long tradition of social justice, which informs its mission 'to change lives through education'. Home to the Early Learning Initiative (ELI), NCI has deep connections with Dublin's inner-city communities.

The Central Bank of Ireland

The Central Bank of Ireland serves the public interest by safeguarding monetary and financial stability and by working to ensure that the financial system operates in the best interests of consumers and the wider economy. Our vision is to be a central bank that is trusted by the public, respected by our peers and to be a fulfilling place to work for our people. Underpinning our public service mandate are our values of integrity and care, courage and humility, and teamwork and excellence.

Our wellbeing strategy focuses on three wellness pillars "Mind", "Body", "Life" representing the holistic nature of the wellbeing programme that promotes physical health, mental health, and emotional wellbeing. Through our Wellbeing Working Group the Central Bank is committed to creating a fulfilling workplace for all of our people. We encourage people to bring their whole selves to work by co-ordinating and highlighting monthly events, supports and activities. Our colleagues can access information through our themes of Read, Watch and Do. We provide useful articles to read, interesting videos to watch and onsite events to attend. We regularly seek feedback about what is working well, what needs to improve and topics we should be highlighting.

Throughout the past year in our response to new ways of working, we have sought to support our colleagues and people managers as they adapt to the challenges of the new hybrid working model. We continue to develop various supports, programmes and guidelines for our colleagues and people managers which strives to raise awareness and eliminate stigma by opening up the conversation which creates a culture of openness and inclusion. We are committed to the health, safety and wellbeing of our people and are delighted to be part of the KeepWell Initiative receiving re-accreditation in 2023.

The Convention Centre Dublin (The CCD)

The Convention Centre Dublin (The CCD) was developed to provide a world-class conference venue in the heart of Ireland's capital city. Since opening in September 2010, The CCD has hosted over 2,000 events and won 55 industry awards, continuing to position Ireland on the world stage for international conferences, congresses and events. The CCD strives to offer a truly world-class venue in every sense, from the quality of the facility, through to every aspect of service. People are at the heartbeat of The CCD, it is the team that brings the venue to life.

BeWell – Wellbeing at The CCD

The CCD's wellbeing journey began some years ago, with more proactive and focused attention in 2017, driven by Human Resources (HR). In late 2020, the venue went a step further and a wellbeing committee was established with members of the business across many departments represented.

The purpose of the wellbeing committee is to assess, plan and implement activities that will help Clann CCD (all those who work at The CCD) to be more aware, motivated and skilled around life decisions and to increase their own and other's wellbeing. The committee's role is also to build a workplace environment that is supportive of living a healthy lifestyle, acting as the voice of all employees to cultivate an organisational culture of healthy living.

BeWell, The CCD's wellbeing programme, is developed around six core pillars of wellbeing – emotional, social, financial, mental, environmental and physical. Engaging with the KeepWell Mark and achieving accreditation in December 2021 was a key goal for the wellbeing programme and ensures that The CCD remains up to date with new developments in the area of wellbeing, offering their employees a more rounded wellbeing programme.

The CCD continues to build upon their wellbeing foundations and offerings, by taking a holistic approach to wellbeing and supporting our people by offering a flexible working environment and encourage a positive work/life balance.

William Fry LLP

At William Fry, our client-focused service combines technical excellence and a practical, constructive approach to business issues. We advise leading domestic and international corporations, financial institutions and government organisations. We regularly act on complex, multi-jurisdictional transactions and commercial disputes. Strong client relationships and high-quality advice are the hallmarks of our business.

We are ranked by international directories, clients and market commentators alike as being a leader in our main areas of work: Corporate & M&A, Banking & Finance, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Asset Management & Investment Funds, Real Estate, Insurance, Competition & Regulation, Tax, Projects & Construction, Employment & Benefits and Technology.

Our head office is in Dublin. We have offices in Cork, London, New York, and San Francisco and are members of a global law firm network to service our clients at home and abroad. Through our alliance with Tughans, Northern Ireland's largest law firm, we provide an all-island solution.

Achieving results for clients is our priority. Continued investment in people and technology help us provide practical and prompt solutions.

Xerox

In Ireland, Xerox is an all Island based company, employing in excess of 400 staff in Dublin, Dundalk and Belfast. For more than 100 years, Xerox has continually redefined the workplace experience. Harnessing our leadership position in office and production print technology, we've expanded into software and services to sustainably power today's workforce. Today, Xerox scientists and engineers are continuing our legacy of innovation with disruptive technologies in digital transformation, augmented reality, robotic process automation, additive manufacturing, Industrial Internet of Things and cleantech.

Our values stand on a foundation of wellbeing, integrity, inclusion, and diversity. We value positive mental health and a sense of belonging for all employees and provide a comprehensive wellbeing programme that supports both our employees and their families. In March 2022 Xerox opened its new HQ which was designed to support collaboration, engagement, and teaming. Xerox new way of working is a flexible and hybrid work model that supports our way of working. It also allows us to showcase our technology, solutions, capabilities & services to partners and customers and reflects the Xerox brand.
